

News Chinatown E-Paper

Chinatown is a place well known to all of us!

It is a place full of humanities and controversies.

People come and go in a rush, but in time, people who are new to the place will become old residents and turn the place into their native homeland.

1.

To the new immigrants, we have the duty to let them learn and understand more community news.

2.

To the old immigrants, we have to praise and commend their achievements and success stories.

3.

To the business community, we provide professional intermediary service.

4.

To the restaurateurs, we establish the Restaurateurs' Association to protect and solve problems for its members.

5.

To the readers, we periodically liaise with tour operators in the community to tailor-make tour routes, starting from knowing Massachusetts.

6.

We set up the special discount zone, apart from saving the cost to buy the newspapers; you can earn some money from it.

7.

Without necessarily referencing any specific person or event, we, in the form of fiction, tell the stories of Chinatown which are unknown to most people.

8.

To the general public, we have the obligation to provide a Chinatown which is all about and concern their everyday life.

News Chinatown is an uncommon e-paper with a focus on you, me and everyone. It is a newsletter that belongs to the public mass.

In this hard time of financial turmoil while newspapers are trimming down and compromising their quality,

News Chinatown will base on the principle of 'rock-bottom pricing to assist the business community to develop.

In the spirit mutual assistance, we should brace together and bravely face the economic downturn.

Please Email : info [at] newschinatown.com for More Information.

[Detail information with price \[PDF\]](#)

You may download the free PDF reader here .

Jason Huang 黃嘉